

Coast Crossword

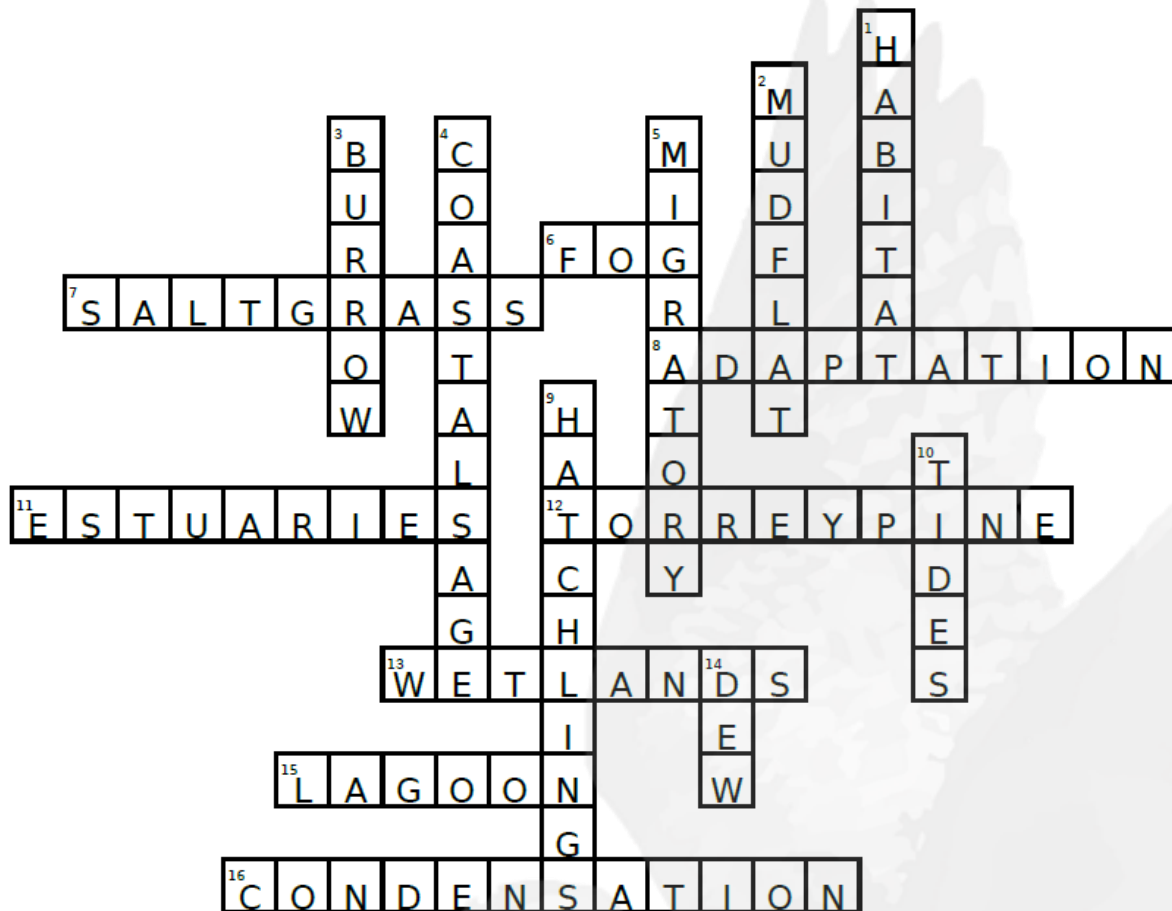

Down:

1. the natural area where an animal lives
2. sometimes lots of water and sometimes not, depends on the tides
3. is a hole or tunnel dug into the ground by an animal to create a living space
4. vegetation type characterized by plants that include sage
5. an animal that migrates
9. newly hatched birds
10. rise and fall of the sea level, can be high or low
14. moisture on the surface that appears on surfaces especially after a cool night

Across:

6. condensed water vapor that forms a cloud close to the ground and limits visibility
7. saltwater is absorbed through the roots; salt is pushed out through pores
8. physical structures, characteristics, or behaviors that allow an animal to survive in its habitat
11. partly enclosed body of water where salt from the ocean mixes with fresh water form streams
12. nation's rarest pine tree
13. low lying areas where water covers the soil for varying periods of time
15. area of shallow water mixture of salt and fresh water by the coast
16. change of water from its vapor state to liquid

Answer Key

Down:

1. the natural area where an animal lives
2. sometimes lots of water and sometimes not, depends on the tides
3. is a hole or tunnel dug into the ground by an animal to create a living space
4. vegetation type characterized by plants that include sage
5. an animal that migrates
9. newly hatched birds
10. rise and fall of the sea level, can be high or low
14. moisture on the surface that appears on surfaces especially after a cool night

Across:

6. condensed water vapor that forms a cloud close to the ground and limits visibility
7. saltwater is absorbed through the roots; salt is pushed out through pores
8. physical structures, characteristics, or behaviors that allow an animal to survive in its habitat
11. partly enclosed body of water where salt from the ocean mixes with fresh water form streams
12. nation's rarest pine tree
13. low lying areas where water covers the soil for varying periods of time
15. area of shallow water mixture of salt and fresh water by the coast
16. change of water from its vapor state to liquid